

Roy Beniston - proposed tour options for 2015

Please note: Next year's tour will be EITHER option 1 or 2 depending on interest shown, not both.

=====

Option [1] Tridays 2015 - This would be run between 21st and 28th June 2015.

- Ferry from Newcastle to Amsterdam on Friday 19th June.
- Overnight Rail-train from Den-Bosch Holland to Livorno [Northern Italy] Sat 20th to Sun 21st June
- Livorno to overnight stop in Malceseni [Lake Garda] on Sunday 21st
- Leave Malceseni for Neukirchen [Austria] Monday am to arrive Monday pm
- 6 days at Triday's including the available tours Tues, Wed, Thur.
- Leave Neukirchen Sunday am for return trip. [details to be confirmed]. Approx 3 Days

I intend to book the formal Triday's 6 day package offer which includes the three tours, welcome pack, goodies and accommodation.

Option [2] Sardinia - This would be run early to mid May to take advantage of cheaper rail, ferry and accommodation; also ensures quieter roads

Day One Overnight Newcastle to Amsterdam ferry [early May] arriving [am], Then ride down to Hertogen Den-Bosch railhead. [approx 90 miles].

Day Two Overnight train from Den-Bosch [Holland] to Livorno in northern Italy arriving a.m on day three.

Day Three Overnight ferry from Livorno to northern Sardinia.

Days 4-9 Touring Sardinia [B&B]

Days 10-14 Return home [reverse route].

=====

As I need to start booking in September to get the preferred dates on Ferry's, Trains & Hotels I will need responses ASAP. I also intend to keep the group small and manageable.

I can strongly recommend either destination and travel arrangements [I've used both].

Prices will be confirmed later, however you need to budget for approx £1,500 excluding petrol & meals.

Regards

Roy
